

PRAYER DIARY WEEK BEGINNING 27 JUN

As well as all of the great issues surrounding us all due to the Covid 19 Crisis also pray more locally for those around us in our communities - our neighbours, those with whom we share our lives and on whose we work we depend. Perhaps we might focus on an intent a day in addition to all our private and corporate national concerns:

4th After Trinity	All those to be baptised across the benefice through the summer, Edwin Wilton-Morgan deaconed this Pentecost
Mon 28 Jun	For Beth Tye RIP laid to rest today, her family, loved ones and friends. The staff of our Medical Centres.
Tue 29 SS Peter & Paul, Apostles	For Jeffrey Marren RIP laid to rest today, his loved ones family and friends. Our pre-school groups
Wed 30 Jun	For local students & teachers engaged in exam and grade assessment process.
Thu 1 Jul	Our sports and social clubs as they strive to rebuild, the work of our young people's organisations
Fri 2 Jul	Remember all who find a readjustment difficult and those still isolated or separated from loved ones
Sat 3 St Thomas the Apostle	With thanks for all who work in our NHS, not least as they stand alongside those in need, loss and recovery.

Almighty God hear the prayers of your people for those with whom we share our lives and on whose work we depend. Be with those who mourn, the lonely, anxious or distressed and grant your grace and strength to all whose work is essential or places them at risk. This we ask through Christ our Lord. Amen

Almighty God, the fountain of all wisdom, you know our needs before we ask and our ignorance in asking; have compassion on our weakness, and give us those things which for our unworthiness we dare not, and for our blindness we cannot ask, for the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

A prayer for all those affected by coronavirus

Keep us, good Lord,
under the shadow of your mercy.
Sustain and support the anxious,
be with those who care for the sick,
and lift up all who are brought low;
that we may find comfort
knowing that nothing can separate us from your love

in Christ Jesus our Lord.
Amen.
